Apparitions of Mary the Mother of God. Our Lady of La Salette, France (1846)

"The vicar of my Son will have much to suffer, as, for a time, the Church will be the victim of great prosecution: this will be a time of darkness. The Church will suffer a terrible crisis.

Melanie and Maximin are out tending sheep and encounter a glowing globe of light. A beautiful weeping woman wearing a high headdress of roses, a silver robe, a gold aprn, white shoes, and a golden crucifix hanging from a chain around her neck, appears sitting on a rock and she relates how the offenses of men such as not reverencing the name of God and work on Sundays will result in calamities, including a potato famine in 1846-7 and disease. The woman entrusts each child with a secret and encourages them to pray and then ascends the hill and disappears.

Remember, dear Lady of La Salette, true Mother of Sorrows, the tears which thou didst shed for me on Calvary; be mindful also of the unceasing care which thou dost exercise to shield me from the justice of God; and consider whether thou canst now abandon thy child, for whom thou hast done so much. Inspired by this consoling thought, I come to cast myself at thy feet, in spite of my infidelity and ingratitude. Reject not my prayer, O Virgin of reconciliation, convert me, obtain for me the grace to love Jesus Christ above all things and to console thee too by living a holy life, in order that one day I may be able to see thee in Heaven. Amen
